Q: Thank you for agreeing to give this recorded statement. Please state your full name for the record.

A: I'd rather just keep it to my first name for now, if that's okay.

Q: That's fine. Can you tell me where you were when the collision happened?

A: I was driving through an intersection in Conroe, Texas, on a clear day. The light was green for me, I believe.

Q: Which direction were you traveling?

A: I was heading east, going straight through.

Q: What happened next?

A: A pickup came from my left and ran the red light. I tried to brake, but it hit the driver's side of my car.

Q: Did you see the other vehicle before the impact?

A: Only for a split second. I saw it coming but there wasn't time to do anything.

Q: Were you wearing your seatbelt?

A: Yes, I was.

Q: How fast were you going?

A: Maybe around the posted speed limit, I'd guess. I wasn't speeding.

Q: Did airbags deploy in your vehicle?

A: No, they didn't. The door caved in against my side, though.

Q: Did you get out of the car at the scene or wait for help?

A: I stayed in the car for a bit because my neck and lower back were hurting badly. Then the paramedics checked me out.

Q: Have you sought medical treatment since the accident?

A: Yes, I went to a clinic the same day and I've been seeing a physical therapist since then.

Q: Can you describe your injuries?

A: I have a stiff, sore neck that makes it hard to turn my head, and my lower back aches, especially when I sit for long periods. The doctor said it's a neck and back strain.

Q: Have you missed any work because of the injuries?

A: A few shifts so far. I'm still figuring out how much time I'll need.

Q: Is there anything else you'd like to add to your statement?

A: Only that I'm hoping this gets resolved fairly. Thank you.

Q: Thank you. This concludes the recorded statement.
