Officer's narrative

Officer narrative: On arrival at the scnee in Houston, Texas, I observed two passenger vehicles in a head-on collision in the roadway. Driver 1 was operating a sedan northbound and Driver 2 was operating a pickup truck southbound when the front bumpers came into contact. Both vehicles sustained front-end damage consistent with a low-speed impact, and both vehicles were driveable but were towed from the scene at the request of their owners. Driver 1 stated that the impact jolted their head and neck and reported neck pain and stiffness. Driver 2 reported no injury. A Passenger seated in the rear of the sedan stated they felt no pain. Driver 1 was evaluated by EMS at the scene and declined transport to a hospital. Weather was clear and the road surface was dry. No citations were issued at the scene pending further investigation. Witness information was obtained and recorded.
