Description of the accident (claimant's words)

I was driving east on the main road and had a green light when a pickup truck coming from the cross street ran the red and struck the passenger side of my car. I had just started moving through the intersection when the impact came, and my vehicle was pushed sideways into the curb. My head hit the side window hard, and I felt dazed and nauseous for several minutes afterward. Bystanders stopped to help, and the police arrived shortly after. I was taken by ambulance to the emergency room, where I was diagnosed with a concussion and told to rest and avoid screens and strenuous activity. I have had headaches, sensitivity to light, and trouble concentrating since the accident. I am still under medical care and have been unable to return to work at full capacity. I believe the other driver is fully responsible for failing to yield the right of way.
