Claim Notes

Claim number:	C-1060
Claimant:	Stacy Sawyer
Adjuster:	Chelsea Hebert

1 Nov 2023 - Claim opened following a low-speed collision in a retail parking lot. Insured reports the other vehicle backed into the driver's side door while the insured was stopped in a marked space. Police report not filed on scene; property damage only at first notice. Claimant reported at first contact that they were not injured. Photos requested from insured and received.

3 Nov 2023 - Recorded statement taken from the insured. Insured confirms both vehicles were moving at very low speed and no airbag deployment occurred. Claimant later reported headache and dizziness and sought medical evaluation. Medical records requested with authorization. Coverage confirmed under liability policy for the at-fault party's carrier; this file handled as third-party bodily injury.

10 Nov 2023 - Claimant is now represented by counsel. All further contact to go through the attorney's office. Letter of representation received and logged. Attorney requested the complete claim file and the at-fault driver's policy limits. Limits disclosure request forwarded to supervisor for handling under company guidelines.

12 Nov 2023 - Medical records received from the treating clinic. Diagnosis documented as concussion with post-concussive symptoms. Treating physician recommends follow-up with neurology and a period of restricted activity. Attorney's demand package expected within thirty days. Reserve reviewed and adjusted to reflect the reported injury severity.

18 Nov 2023 - Independent medical examination scheduled through counsel's office. Adjuster reviewed the vehicle appraisal, which supports the reported impact pattern. Liability for the collision apperas clear based on the statements and photos. File remains open pending receipt of the demand, IME results, and updated treatment records.

Recorded Statement

Claim number:	C-1060
Statement of:	Stacy Sawyer
Taken by:	Chelsea Hebert
Date:	28 Oct 2023

Q: Thanks for taking the time to give this recorded statement. Please state your full name for the record.

A: I'd rather just give my statement without my name on it, if that's okay.

Q: That's fine. For the file, we'll note you as the claimant. Can you tell me where the collision happened?

A: It was in a parking lot in Houston, Texas, at a shopping center. I was pulling out of a parking space near the entrance.

Q: What were you doing right before the impact?

A: I was backing out slowly. I checked my mirror, but a white pickup was coming down the aisle faster than I expected. We hit on the rear driver's side of my car.

Q: Were you wearing your seatbelt?

A: Yes, I was. The airbag didn't deploy, but my head snapped forward and hit the steering wheel.

Q: Did you seek medical attention after the collision?

A: Yes, I went to urgent care the same day. They diagnosed me with a concussion. I've had headaches, dizziness, and trouble focusing on screens for long periods.

Q: Are you still under a doctor's care for the concussion?

A: Yes. I have a follow-up scheduled, and I've been told to limit reading and driving until my symptoms improve.

Q: Did anyone else witness the accident?

A: I don't think so, but the other driver gave me their insurance information, and I took a few photos of both cars before they were moved.

Q: Is there anything else you'd like to add to your statement?

A: Just that I want my vehicle repaired and my medical bills covered. I've missed several days of work because of this.

Q: Thank you. This concludes the recorded statement.
