Claim Notes

Claim number:	C-1073
Claimant:	Ryan Palmer
Adjuster:	Christopher Wong

July 2, 2024 - Claim opened following report of rear-end collision at intersection. Insured vehicle stopped at light, struck from behind by third-party vehicle. Claimant reports neck strain and stiffness, seeking medical evaluation. No attorney on file; claimant handling communications directly.

July 11, 2024 - Spoke with claimant by phone. Confirmed injury is neck strain, with pain radiating to shoulder and limited rotation. Claimant has seen urgent care and received a prescription for muscle relaxants. Provided information on the bodily injury claim process and requested medical records and itemized bills. Claimant stated they have not retained counsel.

July 18, 2024 - Received photos of both vehicles from claimant showing rear bumper damage to the third-party vehcile and minor trunk damage to the claimant's vehicle. Police report obtained and reviewed; it notes the at-fault driver admitted following too closely. Liability appears clear. Advised claimant that they may consult an attorney at any time if they wish.

July 26, 2024 - Requested authorization for release of medical records from claimant. Claimant signed and returned the form. Records from urgent care reviewed; diagnosis consistent with cervical strain, no fractures or imaging-confirmed injuries noted. Follow-up with primary care physician scheduled per claimant report.

August 3, 2024 - Claimant contacted office to ask about rental car coverage and status of physical therapy referral. Explained rental reimbursement terms and that the bodily injury evaluation remains open pending treatment updates. Set reminder to request physical therapy progress notes in thirty days. Claim remains active, no settlement offered at this time.

Recorded Statement

Claim number:	C-1073
Statement of:	Ryan Palmer
Taken by:	Christopher Wong
Date:	July 5, 2024

Q: Thank you for agreeing to give this recorded statement. Please state your full name for the record.

A: I'd rather not give my name on a recording, but you can use the claim reference.

Q: Understood. Can you tell me where you were when the collision happened?

A: I was stopped at a red light on a main road in Pasadena, Texas, in the right lane.

Q: What happened next?

A: The car behind me didn't stop in time. I felt a hard jolt from behind and my head snapped forward and back.

Q: Were you wearing your seatbelt?

A: Yes, I was.

Q: Did you get out of your vehicle at the scene?

A: I got out, but I was dizzy and my neck was already sore. The other driver said they were sorry and that they'd looked down at their phone.

Q: Did you seek medical attention?

A: I went to an urgent care clinic later that afternoon. They diagnosed me with a neck strain and gave me a muscle relaxant and a referral to a physical therapist.

Q: How are you feeling now?

A: I still have stiffness in the neck, especially when I turn my head to check my blind spot. Sleeping has been harder, and I've missed a couple of days of work.

Q: Have you had any prior neck or back problems?

A: No, not that I can recall. I've been generally healthy.

Q: Is there anything else you'd like to add?

A: Only that my car has visible damage to the rear bumper, and I'd like the claim handled as quickly as possible.

Q: Thank you. This concludes the statement.

A: Thank you.
