Description of the accident (claimant's words)

I was backing my silver sedan out of a parknig spot at a shopping center in Conroe, Texas, when I felt a bump and heard a crunch. I had checked my mirrors and seen no vehilces close behind me, but the other car must have been approaching from the side lane while I was turning the wheel. I stopped immediately and got out to look. Both cars had damage to the rear quarter panel and bumper, and the other driver and I exchanged insurance and contact information right away. There were no police on scene, but the store's security staff took a brief note. Later that afternoon, I started to feel stiffness and a sharp pain in my lower back. I went to an urgent care clinic the same day, where I was diagnosed with a back strain and advised to rest and take over-the-counter pain relief.
