Claim Notes

Claim number:	C-1081
Claimant:	Colin Bell
Adjuster:	Chelsea Hebert

2023-07-11 - Received first notice of loss from the insured by phone. Insured reports a collision at an intersection while making a left turn. Ohter vehicle was traveling straight through on the opposing approach. No injuries reported by insured at time of call. Assigned file to adjuster and requested photos, police report number, and recorded statement.

2023-07-12 - Spoke with the insured for recorded statement. Insured states the light was green for their left turn and the opposing vehicle appeared to be speeding. Insured says the impact was to the driver's side front quarter panel of the insured vehicle. Insured did not mention any head injury during this call. Obtained copy of the police report, which lists the other driver as cited for failure to yield on a left turn, though the report narrative is still being reviewed.

2023-07-18 - Contact received from the claimant's attorney's office. Claimant is represented and all further communication must go through counsel. Attorney advises that claimant was diagnosed with a concussion at the emergency department following the collision and is under ongoing care. Requested medical authorization forms and a copy of the emergency department records. Placed a hold on any direct contact with the claimant.

2023-07-25 - Reviewed photos and vehicle damage estimate for the insured vehicle. Damage consistent with the reported angle of impact. Received liability position from the other carrier disputing fault and asserting the insured turned without adequate clearance. Scheduled a scene reconstruction review and requested dash camera footage from both vehicles, if available.

2023-08-03 - Attorney's office sent records summary indicating claimant has been treated for post-concussive symptoms, including headaches and dizziness, and has missed work for a period of time. Bodily injury evaluation has been referred to the claims review unit. Noted that the file will remain open pending receipt of complete medical records and the outcome of the fault determination.

Q: Thank you for agreeing to give this recorded statement. Please state your full name for the record.

A: I'd rahter not give my full name on the recording, but I'm happy to answer your questions.

Q: That's fine. Can you tell me where you were when the accident happened?

A: I was driving through an intersection in Houston, Texas, trying to make a left turn.

Q: What was the traffic like at the time?

A: It was moderate. The light had just turned yellow, and I was waiting to turn when the oncoming traffic cleared.

Q: Did you see the other vehicle before the impact?

A: Not clearly. I remember a car coming towrad me, but I thought it was farther away than it was. I started the turn and then there was a loud bang.

Q: Were you wearing a seatbelt?

A: Yes, I was.

Q: How fast were you going when you began the turn?

A: I'd guess around fifteen or twenty miles an hour. I wasn't rushing.

Q: Have you been seen by a medical provider since the accident?

A: Yes. I was taken to the emergency room. They told me I have a concussion. I've had headaches, I get dizzy when I stand up too fast, and bright lights bother me.

Q: Are you still experiencing those symptoms?

A: Some of them, yes. I've been told to rest and avoid screens for a while, so I'm taking time off work.

Q: Is there anything else you think I should know?

A: I just want to make sure my medical bills and lost wages are taken care of. I'm still trying to understand how this happened.

Q: Thank you. We'll follow up with you once we have reviewed the information.

A: Okay, thank you.
