Claim Notes

Claim number:	C-1100
Claimant:	Amanda Elliott
Adjuster:	Chelsea Hebert

2025-03-16 - Claim received by phone from the insured driver reporting a low-speed head-on collision at an intersection. Insured states the other vehicle crossed the center line during a turn. No airbags deployed. Both vehicles driven from scene. Photos requested from insured and assigned to field appraiser.

2025-03-22 - Insured reports mild neck pain the following morning and has visited an urgent care clinic for evaluation. Diagnosis noted as cervical strain. Claimant has retained counsel, who has requested that all communication be routed through the firm. Letter of representation received and logged. Future contact with claimant suspended pending counsel's direction.

2025-03-27 - Field appraisal completed on insured vehicle. Front bumper cover cracked, hood latch misaligned, and minor damage to the radiator support noted. Estimate prepared and submitted to repair shop for supplement review. Photos uploaded to claim file. Liability on the other vehicle remains under review pending police report.

2025-04-03 - Medical records requested through counsel's office for the cervical strain treatment. Counsel's office indicates a demand package will follow once treatment concludes. Physical therapy referral noted in the medical summary received so far. No surgical recommendation at this time. Reserve adjusted to reflect injury evaluation and continuing treatment.

2025-04-06 - Police report obtained and reviewed. Officer's narrative supports the account that the opposing vehicle crossed into the insured's lane. Liability assessment moved to probable adverse party. Subrogation notice prepared for the other carrier. File flagged for follow-up on medical status and receipt of demand package from counsel.

Recorded Statement

Claim number:	C-1100
Statement of:	Amanda Elliott
Taken by:	Chelsea Hebert
Date:	2025-03-16

Q: Thanks for taking the time to speak with me today. This recorded statement is for the claim file. Can you please state your full name for the record?

A: Sure. I'd rather keep my name out of the file, if that's okay. I'm the driver of the blue sedan.

Q: That's fine, we can refer to you as the claimant. Can you walk me through what happened on the day of the collision?

A: I was heading down the two-lane road toward the shopping center around mid-afternoon. A pickup came over into my lane while it was passing a slow car. I braked and steered right, but we still hit nose to nose. It wasn't a hard hit, but it was enough to jolt me.

Q: What was your speed when you saw the pickup?

A: I'd guess maybe twenty-five or thirty. It's a residential stretch, so I wasn't going fast.

Q: Did either vehicle's airbags deploy?

A: No, nothing deployed. Both cars drove off under their own power, though mine had to be towed later because the front bumper was pushed in.

Q: Did you seek medical attention after the collision?

A: I went to urgent care that same evening. My neck was stiff and sore, and I had some tightness across my shoulders. They diagnosed a neck strain and told me to rest and take anti-inflammatories.

Q: Are you still experiencing symptoms?

A: Yes, it's better than it was, but I still get stiffness when I turn my head quickly, and I've had a few headaches. I'm doing physical therapy twice a week.

Q: Is there anything else you'd like to add?

A: Only that I want to make sure the other driver's insurer knows I was not at fault. I was in my own lane the whole time.

Q: Thank you. That concludes the statement.
