Claim Notes

Claim number:	C-1112
Claimant:	Christopher Matthews
Adjuster:	Christopher Wong

5 Jun 2023 - Reviewed first notice of loss. Insured reports vehicle was turning left at an intersection when it was struck by a vehicle traveling straight through on the cross street. Insured states the other driver ran a late yellow light. Police report requested. No citations confirmed at this time.

13 Jun 2023 - Spoke with insured by phone. Insured confirms no prior claims involving this vehicle in the last several years. Photos of both vehicles received and added to file. Damage to the driver's side of insured vehicle appears consistent with the reported angle of impact. Rental coverage verifeid under policy.

19 Jun 2023 - Claimant has retained counsel. Attorney letter of representation received requesting that all communication be directed to their office. Claimant's injury described as neck and back strain. Medical authorization forms sent to attorney. Recorded statements from claimant to be arranged only through counsel.

24 Jun 2023 - Received police report. Officer documented the other driver as cited for failure to obey a traffic control device. Liability assessment updated to reflect primary fault on the other driver, with possible comparative consideration regarding the insured's left turn timing. Statement from independent witness requested through records.

1 Jul 2023 - Attorney's office submitted initial treatment records showing evaluation for neck and back strain with a recommended course of physical therapy. Demand pakcage not yet received. Reserve reviewed and maintained pending medical documentation. File flagged for follow-up with counsel on outstanding records and scheduled review.

Recorded Statement

Claim number:	C-1112
Statement of:	Christopher Matthews
Taken by:	Christopher Wong
Date:	5 Jun 2023

Q: Thank you for taknig the time to give this recorded statement. Please state your full name for the record.

A: I'd rather not give my full name on a recording, so just go ahead with the claim questions.

Q: That's fine, we can note that. Where were you when the collision happened?

A: I was driving through an intersection in League City, Texas, turning left onto the main road.

Q: Which direction were you traveling before the turn?

A: Straight through the intersection from the north side. I had a green light, or at least I thought I did, and I started to make the left.

Q: What happened next?

A: A vehicle coming from the opposite direction hit the front driver's side of my car. It came through the intersection faster than I expected.

Q: Did you see the other vehicle before you began your turn?

A: I saw headlights, but they were far enough away that I figured I had time. I should have waited longer.

Q: Were you injured?

A: Yes. My neck and lower back got wrenched when the airbag went off and I was thrown against the seat belt. I've had stiffness and pain since.

Q: Have you sought medical treatment?

A: I went to an urgent care clinic that afternoon and I'm scheduled to see a pyhsical therapist next week. The doctor said it looks like a neck and back strain.

Q: Thank you. Is tehre anything you would like to add?

A: Only that I'm cooperating fully and I want this handled properly. I'm still sore and I'm not sure how long recovery will take.

Q: Thank you. This concludes the statement.
