Claim Notes

Claim number:	C-1130
Claimant:	Michelle Collins
Adjuster:	Valerie Rodriguez

November 2, 2023 - Claim opened following a rear-end collision at a signalized intersection. Insured reports the other vehicle struck the rear of the insured vehicle at low speed. Police report requested. Claimant has retained counsel, who has requested that all communications be directed to the firm going forward.

November 9, 2023 - Spoke with claimant's attorney's office. Confirmed representation and received the signed letter of representation. Requested medical authorization forms and the names of all treating providers. Counsel indicated the claimant has complained of neck pain and stiffness since the collision and has begun physical therapy.

November 14, 2023 - Reviewed photos of both vehicles submitted by the insured. Rear bumper damage to the isnured vehicle is visible, with minor deformation to the rear panel. Photos of the claimant vehicle show a cracked taillight and a scuffed front bumper. Vehicle appraisal ordered for both sides.

November 20, 2023 - Received initial treatment records from the claimant's chiropractor. Diagnosis listed as cervical strain with muscle spasm. Records indicate the claimant reported neck pain rated as moderate and limited range of motion. No fractures or imaging-confirmed injuries noted at this stage. Follow-up records requested through counsel.

November 26, 2023 - Status review with supervisor. Liability appears probable against the other driver based on the police report and the rear-end nature of the impact. Claim remains open pending final treatment records, the vehicle appraisal, and a demand package from counsel. Diary set for follow-up in thirty days.

Recorded Statement

Claim number:	C-1130
Statement of:	Michelle Collins
Taken by:	Valerie Rodriguez
Date:	November 8, 2023

Q: Thank you for taking the time to speak with me today. This recorded statement is about the collision you were involved in on a street in Sugar Land, Texas. Do you understand that this call is being recorded?

A: Yes, I understand.

Q: Please state your full name and the address where you currently live.

A: I'd rather just give the street and city for now. I live in Sugar Land.

Q: That's fine. Can you describe what you were doing right before the collision?

A: I was driving home from the grocery store. Traffic was moving slowly, and I had stopped behnid a car at a red light.

Q: Did the vehicle behnid you make contact with your car?

A: Yes. I was stopped and then I felt a hard jolt from behind. My head snapped back and then forward.

Q: Did you see the other vehicle coming before the impact?

A: No, I didn't. I was looking at the lihgt and I never saw it in my mirror.

Q: Did you get out of your vehicle at the scene?

A: I did. The other driver came over and we exchanged information. There was a police officer who showed up and took a report.

Q: Did you seek medical attention after the accident?

A: I went to urgent care that same afternoon. They diagnosed me with a neck strain and gave me a prescription for muscle relaxers and some pain medication.

Q: How are you feeling now?

A: My neck is still sore, especially when I turn my head to check blind spots. I've been doing some stretching and I'm going to physical therapy twice a week.

Q: Have you had any prior neck or back injuries?

A: No, nothing serious. I had some stiffness now and then, but nothing that required a doctor.

Q: Is there aynthing else you'd like to add to your statement?

A: No, I think that covers it. I appreciate your help.

Q: Thank you. This concludes the recorded statement.
