Claim Notes

Claim number:	C-1139
Claimant:	Courtney Joyce
Adjuster:	Christopher Wong

January 22, 2023 - Claim opened for a side impact collision at a signalized intersection. Claimant reports being struck on the driver side by an insured vehicle that entered on a late yellow. Claimant is not represented by counsel. Initial contcat made by phone, statement recorded, and photos of both vehicles requested.

January 26, 2023 - Reviewed the police report. Responding officer noted the insured vehicle was cited for failure to yield. Scene diagram is consistent with the claimant's account. Liability appears clear pending the insured's recorded statement.

February 3, 2023 - Claimant reports neck pain and stiffness beginning the following morning. Denies loss of consciousness and airbag deployment in the claimant's vehicle. Advised claimant of the medical payments coverage and asked for names of treating providers. Claimant states she has been seen at an urgent care clinic and will send records.

February 11, 2023 - Received urgent care records. Diagnosis is cervical strain with muscle spasm, no fractures on imaging. Treatment plan calls for rest, over-the-counter pain relief, and a follow-up with a primary care physician in two weeks. Claimant was given a copy of the claim reference and our adjuster contact information. Reminded claimant that she may consult an attorney at any time and that she is free to make her own decisions about representation.

February 16, 2023 - Claimant returned the signed medical authorization form. Requested prior records covering the past five years to rule out pre-existing neck conditions. Vehicle damage esitmate is complete and has been sent to the repair shop. Reserve reviewed and set for the injury and property damage exposures. Next step is to follow up with the primary care provider once the two-week visit has taken place.

Recorded Statement

Claim number:	C-1139
Statement of:	Courtney Joyce
Taken by:	Christopher Wong
Date:	January 24, 2023

Q: Thank you for agreeing to give this recorded statement. Please state your full name for the record.

A: I'd rather just give my statement without my name on it, if that's okay.

Q: That's fine. Can you tell me where you were when the collision occurred?

A: I was driving through an intersection in League City, Texas. I had a green light and was heading straight through.

Q: What happened next?

A: A vehicle coming from my right side pulled out into the intersection and hit the driver's side of my car. I didn't have time to react. It was a side impact, and the force pushed my car sideways.

Q: Were you wearing your seatbelt?

A: Yes, I was.

Q: Did your airbags deploy?

A: The side curtain airbag came out on my side. Nothing hit my head directly, but my head snapped toward the window.

Q: Have you been seen by a medical provider since the accident?

A: Yes, I went to urgent care that same day. They told me I have a neck strain. I've been doing physical therapy twice a week since then.

Q: Are you still experiencing symptoms?

A: Yes. My neck is stiff, especially in the morning, and turning to check my blind spot is painful. Headaches come and go, and I've had trouble sleeping because of the pain.

Q: Have you misesd any work because of the injury?

A: I've missed a few shifts. I'm trying to work modified duties when I can.

Q: Is there anything else you'd like to add to your statement?

A: Only that I was not at fault. I had the right of way, and I'm hoping this gets resolved so I can focus on recovering.

Q: Thank you. That concludes the statement.
