Description of the accident (claimant's words)

I was backing out of a space near the east entrance of the shopping center parking lot in Pasadena, Texas, moving slowly with my mirrors checked. As I reversed, the rear corner of my vehicle struck the side of a silver sedan that was passing behind me. I stopped immediately, put my hazard lights on, and got out to look at the damage. Both vehicles had visible scuffs and a cracked taillight on my side. The other driver and I exchanged insurance information and took photographs of the scene. When I stepped out of the car, I twisted my right knee on the curb and felt sharp pain. A store employee brought me a chair, and I later went to an ugrent care clinic where I was told I had a knee sprain and was advised to rest and keep the leg elevated.
