Q: Thanks for taking the time to give this recorded statement. Please state your full name for the record.

A: I'd rather just give you the details, but fine. [Name withheld for this test document.]

Q: Understood. Wehre were you when the collision occurred?

A: I was in the parking lot of a grocery store in League City, Texas. I had just pulled into a space near the cart return.

Q: Were you moving or parked at the time?

A: I was backing out of the space, going slowly, maybe five miles an hour.

Q: What happened next?

A: A car came down the lane from my right, and I didn't see it until it was almost on me. Their front bumper hit the rear driver's side of my vehicle.

Q: Did you hit your head or feel any injury at the time?

A: My head bounced off the window frame. I didn't think much of it at first, but within an hour I had a bad headache and felt dizzy.

Q: Have you sought medical treatment since the collision?

A: Yes, I went to urgent care that evening. They said I have a concussion and told me to rest and avoid screens as much as I can.

Q: Are you still experiencing symptoms?

A: Yes. I get headaches most afternoons, I'm sensitive to bright light, and I've had trouble concentrating at work. I've been out for a few days.

Q: Did you lose consciousness at any point?

A: I don't think so. I remember everything from before and after the impact.

Q: Is there anything else you'd like to add to your statement?

A: Only that I was careful and the other driver was going too fast for the lane. I'd like my vehicle damage and medical bills covered.

Q: Thank you. This concludes the statement.

A: Okay, thanks.
