Claim Notes

Claim number:	C-1203
Claimant:	Sandra Williams
Adjuster:	Christopher Wong

23 Feb 2025 - Claim received by phone from insured. Low-speed head-on collision reported at intersection, both vehicles drivable. Insured reports neck pain and stiffness. Vehicle for other party is being towed. Opened bodily injury and property damage features. Assigned to field adjuster for vehicle inspection.

25 Feb 2025 - Field inspection completed on insuerd vehicle. Front bumper cover cracked, hood latch misaligned, minor radiator support damage. Photos uploaded to file. Estimate requested from body shop. Other driver's vehicle has rear-end crush consistent with a low-speed impact on the front. Police report obtained and reviewed; no citations issued.

27 Feb 2025 - Notice of representation received. Claimant is represented by counsel, who has requested that all future contact go through their office. Diary set to confirm the claimant's medical providers and treatment dates. Letter of representation filed with the claim. Phone contact with claimant discontinued per attorney request.

6 Mar 2025 - Records requested from claimant's primary care office and urgent care facility for treatment following the collision. Diagnosis on initial visit noted as cervical strain. Treatment includes physical therapy referral and prescribed muscle relaxants. Reviewed photos and repair estimate; liability appears probable for the at-fault driver based on the statement and damage pattern. Supervisor notified of representation and open injury reserve.

8 Mar 2025 - Received physical therapy progress notes from counsel's office. Patient reports improving range of motion and decreasing pain. Injury file updated with medical summary. Reserve reviewed and adjusted per current treatment plan. Next step is to wait for final treatment report and itemized bills before evaluating settlement posture. File remains open and diaried for follow-up in thirty days.

Recorded Statement

Claim number:	C-1203
Statement of:	Sandra Williams
Taken by:	Christopher Wong
Date:	24 Feb 2025

Q: Please state your full name for the record.

A: I'd rather just keep that off the recording, if that's okay. I'm the driver of the vehicle.

Q: That's fine. Can you describe where the accident happened?

A: It was on a two-lane road in Baytown, near a gas station on the east side. It was fairly early in the afternoon, and the weather was clear.

Q: What were you doing right before the collision?

A: I was heading toward a stoplight and slowed down. The other car came over into my lane. I tried to swerve, but there wasn't much room.

Q: How fast were you traveling?

A: Not fast at all, maybe twenty-five or thirty miles an hour. I was barely moving when we hit.

Q: Was anyone else in your vehicle?

A: No, I was alone.

Q: Did your airbags deploy?

A: No, they didn't. It was a light impact, but both cars were pushed back a little.

Q: Did you seek medical attention after the accident?

A: Yes, I went to urgent care that same evening. They said I had a neck strain and gave me some pain medication and told me to rest.

Q: Where is the pain located now?

A: Mostly in the back of my neck and across my shoulders. Turning my head to the left is the hardest. Sometimes I get headaches by the end of the day.

Q: Have you missed any work because of this?

A: I took a few days off to rest, and I've been limiting how long I sit at the computer.

Q: Do you have any prior injuries to your neck or back?

A: No, nothing serious. I had some stiffness years ago after sleeping wrong, but nothing that needed treatment.

Q: Is there anything else you'd like to add?

A: I just want to make sure my side is clear. I wasn't at fault, and I'm still dealing with the pain.

Q: Thank you. This concludes the statement.

A: Thank you.
