Description of the accident (claimant's words)

I was driving in the right lane on a busy stretch of road in Pasadena, Texas, when I signaled and began to move into the left lane. As I checked my mirror and started to merge, another vehicle came up alongside me in that lane and our vehicles sideswiped each other. I felt a hard jolt and herad the scrape of metal along the side of my car. I pulled onto the shoulder as soon as I could and stopped. The other driver stopped as well, and we exchanged insurance and contact details. My head struck the side window during the impact, and I felt dizzy, confused, and had a headache afterward. I was taken to be checked and was told I had a concussion. I have stopped driving until my doctor clears me.
