Claim Notes

Claim number:	C-1251
Claimant:	Matthew Schneider
Adjuster:	Jerry Hanson

1-20-23 - Insured vehicle was turning left at an intersection when it collided with the claimant's vehicle, which was proceeding straight through on the opposing approach. Both drivers reported a green signal in their own favor. Scene photos taken. Claimant reports being struck on the driver's side door area. Awaiting police report number.

1-25-23 - Claimant contacted the office by phone. States she was transported from the scene by ambulance and was diagnosed with a concussion at the emergency department. Reports headaches, light sensitivity, and difficulty concentrating. Claimant is not represented by an attorney and asked what documentation is needed to open a bodily injury file. Provided the standard medical authorization form and explained the injury claim process.

2-1-23 - Obtained the insured's statement. Insured says the oncoming vehicle appeared suddenly after the insured had already started the turn on a yellow arrow. Insured has no prior claims on record for this policy period. Requested dashcam footage from insured, which is not available. Noted the discrepancy regarding the signal phase for follow-up with the responding officer.

2-5-23 - Spoke with the claimant's treating physician's office to confirm the concussion diagnosis and request records. Office stated imaging was negative but clinical diagnosis stands based on symptoms and cognitive testing. Records requested. Follow-up appointment with neurology has been scheduled per the claimant. Claimant has not yet returned to work and reports ongoing symptoms.

2-12-23 - Reviewed the police report and two independent witness statements. Both witnesses indicate the insured's vehicle entered the intersection on a steady green light and the claimant's vehicle ran the red. Liability assessment updated to favor the insured at a substantial level, pending final review of signal timing data. Letter sent to claimant explaining the preliminary position and her right to submit additional evidence. Bodily injury evaluation remains open until meidcal records are received.

Recorded Statement

Claim number:	C-1251
Statement of:	Matthew Schneider
Taken by:	Jerry Hanson
Date:	1-26-23

Q: Thanks for taking the time to speak with me today. This recorded statement is about the collision you were involved in at an intersection in Sugar Land, Texas. Do you understand that this call is being recorded?

A: Yes, I understand.

Q: Please state your full name and the address where you currently live.

A: I'd rather just give the address for now. I'm still not feeling great.

Q: That's fine. Can you tell me where you were driving and what you were doing right before the collision?

A: I was heading east on the main road and I was turning left into a shopping center parking lot. The light had been green, and I had the left arrow. I think I started to turn when I saw a car coming from the other direction.

Q: Was the other vehicle moving toward you when you started your turn?

A: I believe so. It was closer than I expected, and I tried to speed up a little to clear it, but it hit the front passenger side of my car.

Q: Did you hit your head during the impact?

A: Yes. My head hit the side window and then the airbag went off. I remember feeling dizzy and I had a headache right away.

Q: Did you lose consciousness, even for a moment?

A: I'm not totally sure. Someone was talking to me and I didn't respond right away, so maybe.

Q: Have you been seen by a doctor since the accident?

A: Yes, I went to the emergency room and they told me I have a concussion. They said I need to rest and avoid screens for a while.

Q: Are you still experiencing symptoms like headaches, dizziness, or trouble concentrating?

A: Yes. The headaches come and go, and reading is hard right now. Bright lights bother me too.

Q: Thank you. Is there anything else you'd like to add about how the accident happened?

A: Only that I was being careful and I didn't see the other car until it was almost on me. I'd like to get this resolved.

Q: Understood. That cnocludes the statement. Thank you.

A: Thanks.
