Claim Notes

Claim number:	C-1252
Claimant:	Susan Parker
Adjuster:	Chelsea Hebert

2023-04-09 - Claim opened follwoing a report of a low-speed collision in a parking lot. Insured reports their vehicle was struck by another vehicle while parked. Claimant reports neck and lower back discomfort following the impact and states they have sought initial evaluation. No attorney representation noted at intake.

2023-04-11 - Spoke with the claimant by phone. Claimant describes lower back strain with stiffness and limited range of motion, and says symptoms have persisted since the incident. Claimant confirmed they are handling the claim directly and have not retained legal counsel. Explained the claims process and requested medical documentation and treatment records.

2023-04-18 - Photos of both vehicles received from the insured and claimant. Damage appears consistent with a minor rear-bumper impact. Parking lot surveillance footage requested from the property owner; response pending. Witness statement collected from a bystander who confirms the other vehicle backed into the claimant's car.

2023-04-19 - Medical records received from the claimant's treating provider. Diagnosis listed as lower back strain with recommended physical therapy and follow-up in several weeks. Reviewed records against the reported incident and noted the consistency of symptom onset. Claimant reminded that a written statement is still outstanding.

2023-04-27 - Claimant submitted a signed written statement and completed physical therapy intake. Liability review underway, with the at-fault party's carrier contacted for their position. Claimant informed that the file will remain open pending treatment progerss and the carrier's response. Next follow-up scheduled for the coming week.

Recorded Statement

Claim number:	C-1252
Statement of:	Susan Parker
Taken by:	Chelsea Hebert
Date:	2023-04-06

Q: Thank you for taking the time to give this recorded statement. Please state your full name for the record.

A: I'd rather just keep it to the accident, if that's okay.

Q: That's fine. For the record, can you confirm you were the driver of the vehicle involved in the parking lot collision in Houston, Texas?

A: Yes, I was driving. I'd pulled into a spot near the back entrance of the shopping center.

Q: Walk me through what happened as you were leaving the space.

A: I was backing out slowly, checking my mirrors. The other car was coming down the aisle fast, and I didn't see it until the last second. We hit on the rear driver's side panel of my car.

Q: Were you moving at the time of impact?

A: Barely. I'd say I was rolling at walking speed, maybe a little faster.

Q: Did anyone else witness the collision?

A: A man came over after and asked if we were okay. I don't know if he saw the actaul impact.

Q: Did you have your seatbelt on?

A: Yes, I always do.

Q: Did you notice any injuries right away?

A: Not at first. I felt fine for about an hour, then my lower back started tightening up. By that evening it was pretty bad, a sharp pain when I bent or lifted anything.

Q: Have you seen a doctor about it?

A: Yes, I went to urgent care the next morning. They diagnosed a back strain and told me to rest and take anti-inflammatories. I'm still doing physical therapy twice a week.

Q: Have you had any prior back problems?

A: No, nothing serious. I had some stiffness years ago after moving furniture, but it went away on its own.

Q: Is there anything else you'd like to add?

A: Just that I want this handled fairly, and I'm willing to provide my medical records.

Q: Thank you. That concludes the statement.
