Claim Notes

Claim number:	C-1270
Claimant:	Emily Johnson
Adjuster:	Chelsea Hebert

Etnry 1: Received first notice of loss from the insured driver. Vehicle was struck on the driver's side while the insured was turning left at an intersection. Insured reports the other vehicle entered on a green signal from the opposite direction. Police report requested. Photos of both vehciles requested from the insured.

April 22, 2023 - Spoke with the insured by phone to confirm the sequence of events. Insured states the airbags deployed and she was dazed afterward. She was transported by ambulance to a local hospital and has since reported ongoing headaches and dizziness, consistent with a concussion diagnosis. Medical records requested with authorization.

April 28, 2023 - Claimant is represented by counsel. All further contact to be directed to the attorney's office. Letter of representation received and logged. Attorney has requested the claimant's bodily injury coverage details and the insured's policy limits. Limits disclosure referred to supervisor per company procedure.

April 29, 2023 - Reviewed the police report. Responding officer noted the other driver's statement that the light had turned yellow before entering the intersection. Witness statement from a pedestrian is included and supports the insured's account of the signal sequence. Liability remains under review pending the scene diagram and signal timing records from the city.

May 1, 2023 - Received treating physician's preliminary report from claimant's counsel documenting a concussion with follow-up neurology referral. Recorded the claim as a bodliy injury file with reserves flagged for review. Scheduled a file review in thirty days and requested an independent medical examination through counsel.

Recorded Statement

Claim number:	C-1270
Statement of:	Emily Johnson
Taken by:	Chelsea Hebert
Date:	April 19, 2023

Q: Thank you for taking the time to give this recorded statement. Please satte your full name for the record.

A: I'd rather just keep it to the accident, if that's okay.

Q: That's fine. For the record, can you confirm you were the driver of the vehicle involved in the collision in Katy, Texas?

A: Yes, I was driving. I was the one making the left turn.

Q: Walk me through what happened as you approached the intersection.

A: I was heading east on the main road and wanted to turn left into the shopping center. The light had turned yellow, then I think it went green for me. I checked for oncoming traffic, saw the lane was clear, and started my turn.

Q: Did you see the other vehicle at any point before impact?

A: Not really. I remember a flash of headlights to my right and then the airbag went off. I didn't see it coming until it was on me.

Q: Were you wearing your seatbelt?

A: Yes, I was.

Q: How fast were you traveling when you began the turn?

A: Probably around twenty-five. I wasn't rushing.

Q: After the impact, what symptoms did you notice?

A: I had a bad headache right away and felt dizzy. The light in the car seemed too bright, and I felt nauseous. My neck started hurting later that evening.

Q: Did you seek medical attention?

A: Yes, I was taken by ambulance to the hospital. They told me I have a concussion and I've been told to rest and avoid screens for a while.

Q: Have you experienced any memory problems or trouble concentrating since the accident?

A: Yes, I've had trouble focusing at work and I forget things more than I used to.

Q: Is there anything else you would like to add to your statement?

A: Only that I believe I followed all the traffic rules. I was careful, and I want my medical bills taken care of.

Q: Thank you. This concludes the recorded statement.
