Description of the accident (claimant's words)

I was stopped at a red light on a busy surface street in Pasadena, Texas, waiting to turn left, when I felt a hard jolt from behind. The impact pushed my car forward into the intersection and my head snapped back against the headrest before I could react. The other driver had not slowed down in time and struck the rear of my vehicle at what felt like a significant speed. I got out and checked the vehicle, which has visible damage to the rear bumper and trunk area. Both drivers stayed at the scene, exchanged information, and a police officer came to take a report. Later that evening I developed stiffness and pain in my neck, along with a dull headache. I have since been seen by a doctor, who diagnosed a neck strain and recommended rest, physical therapy, and over-the-counter pain relief.
