Description of the accident (claimant's words)

I was driving south on the main road in Conroe, Texas, and had signaled to turn left into the shopping center driveway. I was partway through the turn when a vehicle coming north went through the intersection and struck the driver's side of my car. The impact spun my car slightly and pushed it toward the curb. I stayed in my seat utnil the police arrived, and I gave them my account of what happened. The other driver said they did not see my turn signal, but I had been signaling for several car lengths before the intersection. My car sustained damage to the driver's side door and rear quarter panel. I felt a sharp pain in my lower back within an hour of the collision, and I have been treating it with rest and physical therapy since then.
