Claim Notes

Claim number:	C-1300
Claimant:	Alexander May
Adjuster:	Chelsea Hebert

March 10, 2024 - Reviewed the first notice of loss for a left-turn collision at an intersection. Insured reports being struck by oncoming vehicle while turning left on a green arrow. Police report requested. Claimant has retained counsel, who has asked that all contact go through their office.

March 18, 2024 - Spoke with claimant's attorney's office to confirm representation and receive the initial demand package. Counsel reports neck and back strain with ongoing physical therapy. Medical records authorization requested. No recorded statement will be taken from the claimant directly.

March 23, 2024 - Obtained the police report. Officer notes the other driver was traveling straight through the intersection and the signal phase is consistent with the insured's account. Witness statement from a nearby pedestrian is on file. Liability appears to lean toward the otehr driver, pending review of photos and vehicle damage.

March 25, 2024 - Received preliminary medical documentation from claimant's counsel showing evaluation for cervical and lumbar strain. Treatment plan includes chiropractic sessions and home exercise. Reviewed records for consistency with the reported mechanism of injury. Bodily injury reserve adjusted upward. Flagged file for supervisor review given attorney involvement.

March 28, 2024 - Followed up with defense counsel regarding the insured's coverage position and the claimant's pending demand. Requested updated treatment notes and billing ledger before evaluating settlement range. Diary set for follow-up in thirty days. Insured has been kept informed of progress and reminded to forward any correspondence received directly.

Recorded Statement

Claim number:	C-1300
Statement of:	Alexander May
Taken by:	Chelsea Hebert
Date:	March 9, 2024

Q: Thank you for taking the time to speak with me today. This recorded statement concerns the collision you were involved in while turning left in League City, Texas. Do you understand that this conversation is being recorded?

A: Yes, I understand.

Q: Please tell me in your own words what happened.

A: I was heading through the intersection on a left turn. The light had turned yellow and I was waiting for a gap in oncoming traffic. Then a car came from the other direction and hit the side of my vehicle.

Q: Had you come to a complete stop before starting the turn?

A: I slowed down, but I was already in the turn when the other car reached the intersection.

Q: Were you wearing your seatbelt at the time?

A: Yes, I was.

Q: Did you feel any injuries right after the collision?

A: Not right away. About an hour later my neck started hurting, and by the next morning my lower back was stiff and sore.

Q: Have you seen a doctor or other medical prvoider since the accident?

A: Yes, I went to urgent care and they diagnosed me with a neck strain and a lower back strain. I was told to rest and do physical therapy.

Q: Are you sitll experiencing pain or limited movement?

A: Yes, turning my head to the left is still difficult, and I have trouble sitting for long periods.

Q: Is there anything else you think I should know about the accident?

A: I just want to say that I was driving carefully and I did not see the other vehicle until it was too late to avoid it.

Q: Thank you. That concludes this statement.

A: Thank you.
