Description of the accident (claimant's words)

I was driving north on the frontage road near the Sugar Land Town Square, moving slowly in light traffic, when the vehicle in the oncoming lane drifted across the center line. I braked and turned slightly to the right, but the front of its car struck the front of mine at low speed. Both vehicles came to a stop within a few feet of each other. Neither airbag deployed, and both cars were still drivable, though the bumpers and hoods were badly crumpled. I got out and spoke with the other driver, who appeared shaken but apologized and said the sun had been in her eyes. A few hours later I developed a severe headache, nausea, and sensitivity to light, and was diagnosed with a concussion. I have been resting at home and following my doctor's instructions, and I am still experiencing dizziness and fatigue.
