Description of the accident (claimant's words)

I was driving my sedan north on the main road in Pasadena, Texas, intending to make a left turn into the parking lot of a shopping center. I stopped at the intersection, waited for oncoming traffic to clear, and began my turn when the light changed. As I entered the intersection, a vehicle coming from the opposite direction struck the front driver's side of my car. The impact pushed my vehicle sideways and jolted me against the seatbelt. I was shaken and immediately noticed pain in my right shoulder, which I believe came from the force of the belt and the twisting motion. Police arrived at the scene and filed a report. My car sustained front-end and door damage and could not be driven safely. I was taken to be evaluated and was advised about a shoulder injury that may need further treatment.
