Description of the accident (claimant's words)

I was making a left turn at a green light, moving slowly across the eastbound lanes, when a white SUV coming from the opposite direction struck the front driver's side of my vehicle. I did not see it approaching in time, and I believe the other driver may have been traveling faster than the posted limit. The impact spun my car partly around and pushed it into the curb. Airbags deployed. I was not wearing a helmet, but I was belted in, and my head struck the side window hard enough to leave me dazed. Bystanders stopped to help, and a police offcier arrived on scene and filled out a report. Paramedics checked me at the scene and recommended I go to the hospital, where I was diagnosed with a concussion. I have been experiencing headaches, dizziness, and sensitivity to light since the accident and have had to stop driving and working for now.
