Q: Thanks for taking the time to speak with me today. This recorded statement is about the rear-end collision you were involved in on a street in Pasadena, Texas. Do you understand that this call is being recorded?

A: Yes, I understand.

Q: Please state your full name and the address where you currently receive mail.

A: I'd rather just keep to the accident itself, if that's okay.

Q: That's fine. Can you walk me through what happeend before the impact?

A: I was stopped at a red light in the right lane. Traffic had been moving slowly, so I'd come to a full stop maybe a few seconds before the hit.

Q: Where were you headed, and what was the weather and road condition like?

A: I was going to a medical appointment across town. It was clear, and the pavement was dry. It was mid-afternoon.

Q: What happened next?

A: The car behind me didn't stop in time. I saw it in my mirror, then felt a hard jolt from the back. My head snapped forward and then back against the headrest.

Q: Did you get out of your vehicle at the scene?

A: I got out, but I was dizzy and my shoulder was really hurting. I sat on the curb until the officer arrived.

Q: Which part of your body was injured?

A: My right shoulder. I felt a sharp pain when I tried to lift my arm, and it's gotten worse since.

Q: Did you receive medical treatment after the accident?

A: Yes, I was taken to the emergency room that evening, and I've been seeing a physical therapist twice a week since then.

Q: Thank you. Is there anything you'd like to add that I haven't asked about?

A: Just that I was doing nothing wrong. I was completely stopped, and I'd like this to be handled quickly.

Q: Understood. Thank you for your time today.

A: You're welcome.
