Description of the accident (claimant's words)

I was stopped at a red light on the access road near the intersection in Pasadena, Texas, waiting to turn left, when I felt a hard impact from behind. My vehicle was pushed forward into the intersection and I was jolted against my seatbelt. The other driver had been following too closely and did not appear to slow down in time. After the collision, I got out and checked my vehicle, which had visible damage to the rear bumper and trunk. The other driver and I exchanged insurance information, and the police officer who responded took a report at the scene. Since the accident, I have experienced pain in my right shoulder that worsens when I lift or reach overhead. I have sought medical attention and am following the treatment plan my doctor recommended.
