Dear Claims Representative:

This firm has been retained to represent our client in connection with the motor vehicle collision that occurred when your insured turned left across our client's path. Our client sustained injuries in the incident and is now seeking compensation for medical treatment, lost income, and the pain and suffering that has followed.

Finally, we ask that your insured and your company preserve all evidence relating to the accident. This includes photographs, dash camera or telematics data, witness statements, claim file notes, vehicle repair records, and any recorded statements. Please confirm in writing that tehse materials will be retained.
