Claim Notes

Claim number:	C-1381
Claimant:	Ivan Wells
Adjuster:	Jerry Hanson

05/18/2023 - Claim received by phone from the insured driver following a side impact collision at an intersection. Insured reports the other vehicle entered the intersection against a red signal and struck the driver's door. Claimant reports neck and back strain and was evaluated at a local clinic. No attorney representation noted at this time. Recorded statement scheduled.

05/24/2023 - Recorded statement taken from claimant. Claimant describes stiffness in the neck and lower back beginning the morning after the collision. Reports pain rated moderate and difficulty turning the head while driving. Claimant states they are not represented by counsel and prefers to handle the claim directly. Requested copies of all medical records and treatment notes.

06/02/2023 - Scene photos and vehicle damage estimate received. Driver side door panel, window frame, and rear quarter panel show deformation consistent with a side impact. Police report otbained and reviewed, which lists the other driver as cited for failure to yield. Liability appears clear pending confirmation from the other carrier.

06/11/2023 - Claimant returned medical authorization forms. Clinic records reflect a diagnosis of cervical and lumbar starin with a recommendation for physical therapy twice weekly for four weeks. Claimant confirmed attendance at the initial therapy session. Adjuster explained the claims process and the claimant's right to seek legal advice if desired, and claimant again confirmed no representation.

06/12/2023 - Follow-up call with claimant to check on symptoms and therapy progress. Claimant reports improvement in neck mobility but ongoing lower back discomfort, especially after long periods of sitting. Therapy notes requested from provider. Injury evaluation remains open. File flagged for review once treatment records are complete.

Recorded Statement

Claim number:	C-1381
Statement of:	Ivan Wells
Taken by:	Jerry Hanson

Q: Thank you for taking the time to give this recorded statement. Please state your full name for the record.

A: I'd rather just keep this to the accident itself, if that's okay.

Q: Understood. For the record, can you confirm you were the driver of the vehicle you were operating at the time of the collision?

A: Yes, I was driving my own car.

Q: Walk me through what happened at the intersection.

A: I was going thruogh a green light heading east. A pickup coming from the north side ran the red and hit the passenger side of my car. I felt the impact right in the door area.

Q: Were you able to see the pickup before the impact?

A: Not really. It came out of nowhere. I think I had maybe half a second before it hit.

Q: Did you brake or swerve at all?

A: I tried to brake, but there wasn't time to do much. My car spun a little before it stopped.

Q: Did you hit your head or lose consciousness?

A: No, I didn't hit my head. I stayed awake the whole time.

Q: How are you feeling now?

A: My neck is really stiff, and my lower back is aching. Turning my head to check traffic hurts. I went to urgent care that afternoon and they said it was a strain. I'm taking anti-inflammatories and I've been going to physical therapy twice a week.

Q: Have you had any prior neck or back problems?

A: Nothing serious. I had some soreness years ago after lifting something, but it went away and I didn't need treatment.

Q: Is there anything else you think I should know?

A: Just that I'm still missing work because sitting and driving make the pain worse. I'd like to get this resolved.

Q: Thank you. That concludes the statement.
