Description of the accident (claimant's words)

I was backing my car out of a space in the parking lot of a grocery sotre in Houston, Texas, moving slowly with my mirrors checked. As I turned to look over my right shoulder, I felt a jolt and heard a loud bang. When I stopped and got out, I saw that the rear bumper of my vehicle had made contact with the front corner of a silver sedan that was passing behind me in the aisle. Neither of us was moving fast, and both vehicles had visible scuffs and cracked plastic trim. The other driver and I exchanged insurance information and took photographs of the damage. Afterward I felt a sharp pain in my lower back, which I believe came from twisting in the seat at the moment of impact. I have since been experiencing stiffness and soreness that makes it difficult to sit for long periods. I am reporting this injury and the collision for review.
