Claim Notes

Claim number:	C-1410
Claimant:	Amy Crawford
Adjuster:	Christopher Wong

September 21, 2023 - Insured vehicle struck by a vehicle that was turning left across the insured's lane at an intersection. Both drivers reported the light was green in their direction. Claimant reports headache and dizziness at scene and was transported by ambulance for evaluation. Claimant is not represented by counsel. Photos requseted from both parties and from the scene.

September 28, 2023 - Spoke with claimant by phone. Claimant describes ongoing headache, light sensitivity, and trouble concentrating since the collision. Claimant says a physician diagnosed a concussion and recommended rest and follow-up. Claimant has not retained an attorney and prefers direct communication. Medical release form sent for signature.

October 2, 2023 - Reviewed police report. Responding officer noted the other driver admitted failing to yield during the left turn. Witness statement obtained from a pedestrian at the corner, who confirmed the turning vehicle entered the intersection before the oncoming vehicle had cleared. Liability appears to rest primarily with the turning driver.

October 7, 2023 - Received treatment records from the claimant's primary care provider. Records confirm a concussion diagnosis with recommended cognitive rest and a referral to a neurologist. Claimant has missed several days of work and is on modified duties. Requested wage documentation from the employer through the claimant.

October 15, 2023 - Followed up with claimant regarding the neurologist appointment and the wage documents. Claimant confirmed both are in progress. Explained the claims process and the timeline for reviewing the injury claim once medical records are complete. Claimant asked no questions about settlement at this time. File remains open pending specialist evaluation.

Recorded Statement

Claim number:	C-1410
Statement of:	Amy Crawford
Taken by:	Christopher Wong
Date:	September 28, 2023

Q: Thanks for taking the time to give this recorded statement. Please state your full name for the record.

A: I'd rather not give my name on a recording right now, if that's okay. You already have my claim information.

Q: Understood. Can you describe in your own words what happened at the intersection?

A: I was making a left turn at the light. I had a green arrow, I think, or at least the light was green for me. A vehicle coming straight through hit my driver's side front corner.

Q: Did you see the other vehicle before the impact?

A: Not really. I looked, but it was already too close. I heard the horn and then there was a bang.

Q: How fast were you traveling when you started the turn?

A: Slow, maybe ten or fifteen miles an hour. I was waiting for a gap in traffic.

Q: Were you wearing your seatbelt?

A: Yes, I was.

Q: Did the airbags deploy?

A: The side curtain did, I think. Everything happened really fast.

Q: Did you seek medical attention after the collision?

A: Yes. I went to urgent care that same afternoon. They said I have a concussion. I've had headaches, I get dizzy when I stand up, and the light bothers my eyes.

Q: Are you currently under a doctor's care for the concussion?

A: Yes, I have a follow-up scheduled and I've been told to limit screen time and rest as much as I can.

Q: Is there anything else you'd like to add to your statement?

A: Only that I was trying to follow the rules of the road. I'm still dealing with the symptoms, so I may need some time before I can answer more questions.

Q: Thank you. This concludes the reocrded statement.
