Description of the accident (claimant's words)

I was making a left turn at a green-arrow intersection in Pearland, Texas, and had just started to move into the lane when a vehicle coming the opposite direction struck the front driver's side of my car. I had checked for oncoming traffic before turning, but the other vehicle appeared to be moving fast and I did not see it until it was too late to avoid contact. The impact pushed my car sideways and the airbag deployed. My right knee struck the dashboard, and I felt immediate pain and swelling. Pearland emergency responders arrived on scene, and I was taken to a local hsopital for evaluation. I was unable to put weight on the leg for several days afterward and have been attending physical therapy since. I am providing this statement to describe the events as I remember them and to support my claim for vehicle damage and medical expenses.
