Claim Notes

Claim number:	C-1499
Claimant:	Julie Gomez
Adjuster:	Chelsea Hebert

25 Apr 2024 - Claim received by phone from the insured driver following a low-speed head-on collision at an intersection. Insured reports a minor front-end impact and states the other vehicle's driver is also reporting neck and back discomfort. Claimant has not retained counsel at this time. Assigned to field adjuster for vehicle inspection and statement collection.

1 May 2024 - Recorded statement obtained from claimant. Claimant describes stopping in traffic when the other vehicle crossed the centerline at low speed. Reports stiffness in the neck and lower back the following morning. Claimant indicated they have seen a primary care provider and are awaiting follow-up. No atotrney involved. Advised claimant of the process for submitting medical records.

3 May 2024 - Photos of both vehicles reviewed. Bumper cover and radiator support damage noted on the claimant's vehicle, consistent with a low-speed frontal impact. Airbag did not deploy. Estimate requested from the body shop and will be compared against the initial appraisal.

6 May 2024 - Medical records received from the claimant's provider. Diagnosis listed as cervical and lumbar strain with muscle spasm. Treatment plan includes physical therapy and anti-inflammatory medication. Records reviewed and forwarded to the bodily injury evaluation queue. Claimant remains unrepresented and has been sent a written explanation of benefits.

15 May 2024 - Follow-up call placed to claimant to confirm receipt of the written explanation and to check on therapy attendance. Claimant reports symptoms are improving and expects to complete the current treatment plan. File remains open pending final medical report and repair invoice.

Recorded Statement

Claim number:	C-1499
Statement of:	Julie Gomez
Taken by:	Chelsea Hebert
Date:	3 May 2024

Q: Thank you for agreeing to give this recorded statement. Can you please state your full name for the record?

A: I'd rather just keep it to the accident, if that's alright.

Q: Understood. Let's start with where you were when the collision happened.

A: I was driving on a two-lane road in Houston, heading toward the highway on-ramp. It was late afternoon and traffic was moderate.

Q: Which direction were you traveling, and what was the other vehicle doing?

A: I was going straight. The other car came across into my lane. I think they were trying to pass a slow truck, but I can't say for certain.

Q: How fast were you going when you noticed the other vehicle?

A: Maybe twenty-five miles an hour, maybe less. I was braking when we hit. It wasn't a hard hit, more like a bump that stopped us both.

Q: Did either airbag deploy?

A: No, nothing deployed. My car just jolted forward and back.

Q: Did you hit your head or lose consciousness at any point?

A: No, I didn't hit my head. I stayed awake the whole time and got out of the car on my own.

Q: Where do you feel pain or discomfort now?

A: My neck is stiff and sore, and my lower back aches, mostly when I sit for a long time or get up from the couch. I started noticing it the next morning.

Q: Have you seen a doctor or received any treatment since the collision?

A: Yes, I went to urgent care that evening and I've been doing physical therapy twice a week since. The doctor said it was a strain.

Q: Did you have any neck or back problems before this accident?

A: Not that I can recall. I had a little stiffness after my workouts sometimes, but nothing that stopped me from doing anything.

Q: Thank you. Is there anything you would like to add?

A: No, I think that covers it. I just hope I can get back to normal soon.

Q: Thank you for your time. This concludes the statement.
