Description of the accident (claimant's words)

I was backing out of a parking space at a shopping center in Sugar Land, Texas, moving slowly, when the other vehicle came around the end of the row and struck the rear passenger side of my car. I stopped right away, checked my mirrors and got out to look at the damage. When I stepped down, my right knee twisted and I felt sharp pain, so I sat on the curb until I could walk again. I have described this same sequence to the adjuster and to the store staff, and each time I added only small details, such as the exact spot where the other car was parked. The core facts have not changed. I am the named driver on this policy and I was operating my own vehicle at the time.
