Claim Notes

Claim number:	C-1054
Claimant:	Shannon Lewis
Adjuster:	Christopher Wong

27 Jun 2024

The insured reported that their vehicle was struck while they were turning left at an intersection, and the claimant confirmed being a passenger in the vehicle at the time of impact. Initial documentation was opened and the claim was assigned for review.

7 Jul 2024

Police and two independent witnesses confirmed the collision occurred as described, and scene photographs were received showing damage consistent with a left-turn impact. The other driver's statement matches the insured's account in its key points.

12 Oct 2024

The claimant reported a concussion following the collision and stated the same account of events in each conversation so far. The injury description is consistent with the force of the crash based on the damage shown in the photographs.

22 Oct 2024

Vehicle damage was inspected and is largely in line with the described impact. No prior damage to the vehicle is known from the policy history or the inspection, and nothing indicates the damage predates the start of coverage.

6 Jan 2025

Medical records were requested. The treatment followed a typical course for this kind of injury, with care tapering as the claimant's symptoms improved. No earlier injury to the same area of the body is known from the claimant's history.

19 Jan 2025

The driver is listed as a named driver on the policy, and the policy was in force on the date of loss. The claimant's presence in the vehicle has been confirmed by the police report and by witness statements.

30 Jan 2025

Based on the consistent accounts, photographs, and medical treatment pattern, the claim is progressing without concerns about the reported injury or vehicle damage. The file will move to the next stage for settlement review.

Recorded Statement

Claim number:	C-1054
Statement of:	Shannon Lewis
Taken by:	Christopher Wong
Date:	20 Jun 2024

Q: Thank you for agreeing to give this recorded statement. Please state your full name for the record.

A: I'd rather not put my name on it yet, but I can answer your questions.

Q: That's fine for now. Can you tell me where you were when the collision happened?

A: I was in Houston, Texas, turning left at an intersection with a green arrow. I'd been driving that route for years.

Q: What happened as you made the turn?

A: I was partway thorugh the turn when a vehicle coming the other way hit the front driver's side of my car. I didn't see it cmoing until right before impact.

Q: Were you able to stop or swerve before the impact?

A: No. I tried to brake but there wasn't time.

Q: Did you lose consciousness or hit your head?

A: My head hit the side window and the airbag went off. I was dizzy and had a headache right after. I went to the emergency room that evening.

Q: What symptoms are you still having?

A: Headaches most days, trouble concentrating, and I get tired faster than before. My doctor told me it's a concussion and I've been limiting screen time and reading.

Q: Has any medical provider given you a restriction on work or driving?

A: Yes, I've been told to take it easy and not drive long distances until I'm cleared.

Q: Did anyone else witness the collision or give you their contact information?

A: The other driver stayed at the scene and a man in a truck stopped. I think he gave a card to the officer, but I don't have it.

Q: Is there anything else you'd like to add before we finish?

A: Only that I want my car looked at and my medical bills covered. I'm willing to provide my records.

Q: Thank you. This concludes the statement.
