Description of the accident (claimant's words)

I was driving through Conroe, Texas, on a weekday afternoon when the car in front of me stopped suddenly and I could not avoid it. We were moving slowly, so the impact was a low-speed head-on collision, but it was enough to jolt me forward and back. Once I had caught my breath, I got out, exchanged details with the other driver, and waited for the police report to be filed. Since then I have felt a neck strain that makes turning my head uncomfortable, and I have been seeing a doctor about it. I have told the same account of what happened each time I have described it, and I have only added small details as I remembered them, without changing the sequence of events. I am the driver named on this policy and I am submitting this statement for review.
