Description of the accident (claimant's words)

I was driving home on a weekday afternoon when the car in front of me stopped abruptly, and I braked as hard as I could. The vehicle coming the other way crossed into my lane and we met head-on at low speed. Both cars were drivable at first, but I felt a sharp pain in my neck and upper back within the hour, and by the next morning my head ached and turning to the left hurt. I have told this same account every time I have described the collision, to the other driver, to the officer who came to the scene, and to my doctor. I am the named driver on this policy and I was operating my own vehicle with the owner's permission at the time. I am submitting this statement so the claim can be reviewed, and I am willing to provide photographs and medical records on request.
