Claim Notes

Claim number:	C-1093
Claimant:	Brandon May
Adjuster:	Chelsea Hebert

August 18, 2024
Claim received on a rear-end collision report from the insured's vehicle. The claimant reports neck strain and is not represented by counsel at this stage.

September 14, 2024
Reviewed the insured's policy and cofnirmed the driver involved is named on the policy. Coverage was in force at the time of loss, and nothing in the file suggests the damage predates the policy start.

September 20, 2024
Spoke with the claimant, who described the impact and the resulitng neck discomfort. The account matched what was recorded at first notice.

October 17, 2024
Received the photographs from the scene. They confirm the general location and rear-end contact, though some details are not fully visible in the images.

October 25, 2024
No independent witnesses were identified. The claimant did not provide the other party's details at the scene, and the claimant joined the claim several days after the collision.

October 31, 2024
Requested prior medical records. No earlier injury to the same body area is known from the information gathered so far.

November 12, 2024
Reviewed the treatment notes. The injury is consistent with the type and force of the collision, and the treatment followed a typical course.

November 29, 2024
Inspected the vehicle. A few older scratches were noted that may predate this collision, so the scope of damage attributable to this impact is still being evaluated.

November 30, 2024
Called the claimant again to go over the account. The claimant gave the same description of events as in earlier conversations.

March 10, 2025
Treatment has tapered as the claimant improved, consistent with the expected recovery pattern. Reserves were reviewed against the current status.

March 13, 2025
Claim remains open pending the completion of the damage assessment and a final review of the medical records.

Q: Thanks for taking the time to speak with me today. This call is being recorded for claim file purposes. Can you confirm you're comfortable with that?

A: Yes, that's fine.

Q: Great. Can you walk me through what happened on the day of the accident?

A: I was stopped at a red light on a main road in Pasadena, Texas, in the right lane. The car behind me didn't stop in time and hit me from the rear. It wasn't a huge impact, but it was enough to push my car forward a bit.

Q: Were you able to drive your vehicle from the scene?

A: Yes, it was drivable, so I pulled into a parking lot nearby and waited for the police to show up.

Q: Did an officer come out and wirte a report?

A: Yes, an officer came out, took statements from both of us, and gave me a card with a report number on it.

Q: How are you feeling physically since the accident?

A: My neck is pretty sore, mostly in the back and on the left side. I also get a stiff feeling when I turn my head to check my blind spot while driving.

Q: Have you seen a medical provider about this?

A: Yes, I went to an urgent care clinic the same day. They checked my range of motion, prescribed some muscle relaxers, and told me I had a neck strain.

Q: Have you had any follow-up treatment since then?

A: I've been going to physical therapy twice a week. It helps a little, but I still have bad days where I can't turn my head comfortably.

Q: Did you have any neck or back problems before the accident?

A: No, not that I can recall. I was active and didn't have any ongoing issues with my neck.

Q: Is there anything else you'd like to add about the accident or your injuries?

A: Not right now. I just want to get back to normal and be able to work without pain.

Q: Thank you. We'll follow up with you once we've reviewed the information. Have a good day.

A: Thanks, you too.
