Claim Notes

Claim number:	C-1100
Claimant:	Garrett Cook
Adjuster:	Christopher Wong

2023-08-28
Claim opened after the insured reported a low-speed collision while the vehicle was parked in a supermarket lot. The claimant, who is not represented, gave a first account by phone and said they felt neck stiffness shortly after the impact.

2023-09-24
Confirmed the driver is named on the policy and that the policy was in force at the time of loss. Requested the police report and a copy of the scene photographs.

2023-09-30
Police report received and the reporting officer confirms the claimant was in the vehicle at the scene. The other driver's statement matches the claimant's description of how the impact occurred.

2023-10-04
Two independent witnesses were interviewed and both describe the collision as the claimant described it. Scene photographs show damage that is mostly in line with the impact described.

2023-11-10
Claimant reported neck strain and was referred to a clinic for evaluation. The reported injury is plausible for a collision of this kind and no earlier injury to the same area is known from the records available.

2024-02-03
Claimant called again to add a few small details about the seating position and the timing of the impact. The core account has not changed since the first report.

2024-02-10
A neighbor mentioned seeing the vehicle with body damage seevral weeks before the claimed date. The neighbor's recollection is ucnonfirmed and no earlier damage to the vehicle is recorded in our files.

2024-02-28
Treatment followed a usual course and symptoms tapered off as the claimant improved. Repair estimate reviewed and the cost is consistent with the damage shown in the photographs.

2024-03-03
File reviewed. Injury and vehicle damage are consistent with the reported collision and the claimant's account is unchanged. The neighbor's comment is noted but not supported by other evidence, so the claim proceeds to settlement review.

Recorded Statement

Claim number:	C-1100
Statement of:	Garrett Cook
Taken by:	Christopher Wong
Date:	2023-08-04

Q: Thank you for taking the time to speak with me today. This recorded statement concerns the parking lot collision in Conroe, Texas. Please state your full name for the record.

A: I'd rather just give you the facts. I'm the driver of the silver sedan that was involved.

Q: Understood. Can you describe where you were when the collision happened?

A: I was backing out of a space near the store entrance. It was late afternoon and the lot was pretty busy.

Q: Did you see the other vehicle before contact?

A: Not right away. I checked my mirrors and didn't see anything behind me. Then I felt a bump and heard a crunch on the driver's side rear.

Q: Were you moving when the impact occurred?

A: Yes, I was rolling backward slowly, maybe a few miles an hour.

Q: Did you stop your vehicle immediately after the contact?

A: Yes. I put it in park and got out to look.

Q: Have you noticed any injuries since the collision?

A: My neck is sore. It's a stiff, tight feeling in the back and sides, and turning my head to the left hurts. I've been taking over-the-counter pain relief.

Q: Have you sought medical care?

A: I went to an urgent care clinic the same evening. They told me it looked like a neck strain and gave me instructions to rest and do gentle stretches.

Q: Are you still experiencing symptoms today?

A: Yes, it's improved a little but I still have discomfort when I turn my head or sit for long periods.

Q: Is there anything else you would like to add to your statement?

A: No, I think that covers it. I'm willing to provide the clinic paperwork if you need it.

Q: Thank you. This concludes the recorded statement.
