Claim Notes

Claim number:	C-1125
Claimant:	Sarah Walters
Adjuster:	Jerry Hanson

5-25-24
First notice of loss was received for a side impact at an intersection, with the claimant reporting neck and back strain. The claimant has retained counsel, and all further contact will be routed through the attorney's office.

6-7-24
Photos taken at the scene show damage that lines up with the described impact, and the vehicle damage is consistent with a side collision. The file has no independent witness statements, so the photos carry most of the weight at this stage.

7-26-24
Police report confirms the clamiant was in the vehicle at the time of the crash. The responding officer's notes match the basic sequence of events given at intake.

8-19-24
The claimant's account of the collision has stayed the same in every conversation so far, including the initial call and the recorded statement. No change in the description of how the crash happened has been noted.

8-25-24
Records search shows no earlier damage to the vehicle on file, and nothing suggests the damage predates the start of coverage. The driver is a member of the policyholder's household and is covered as such.

9-16-24
Medical records were requested through counsel. No prior injury to the neck or back has been identified in the claimant's history, and the reported strain is a plausible result of a crash of this type.

10-6-24
Treatment followed a typical course of care, with the claimant attending scheduled visits and progressing steadily. The treating provider's notes show symptoms easing over the period of care.

12-6-24
Treatment has tapered as the claimant improved, and the most recent records show fewer visits and reduced reported pain. Current status is being monitored against the medical file.

12-23-24
File reviewed. Vehicle damage, police confirmation of the claimant's presence, consistent accounts, and medical course all align with the reported loss, and the claim remains open pending final medical documentation from counsel.

Q: Thank you for taking the time to speak with me today. This recorded statement cnocerns the collision you reported at an intersection in Sugar Land, Texas. Do you understand that this conversation is being recorded?

A: Yes, I understand.

Q: Please state your full name and the best number to reach you.

A: I'd rather not give my full name on the recording, but you have my details on file.

Q: That's fine. Can you walk me through what happened when you entered the intersection?

A: I was driving through on a green light, heading straight across. A pickup coming from my right side didn't stop for its red and clipped the driver's side of my car. It hit me just behind the front door.

Q: Did you see the pickup before the impact?

A: Only for a second. I glanced over and saw it moving fast, but I didn't have time to react.

Q: Were you wearing your seatbelt?

A: Yes, I was.

Q: How fast were you going, approximately?

A: Maybe 30 miles an hour, the posted limit there.

Q: Did you get out of the car or speak with the other driver?

A: I got out. The other driver said he was sorry and that he got distracted. We exchanged insurance information and a police officer came out.

Q: Have you sought medical treatment since the collision?

A: Yes, I went to urgent care that same day. They diagnosed a neck strain and a lower back strain. I've had some stiffness and soreness since then, and I've been doing physical therapy twice a week.

Q: Are you still experiencing those symptoms today?

A: Yes, the neck is better than it was, but my lower back still bothers me when I sit for long periods.

Q: Thank you. Is there anything you'd like to add that I haven't asked about?

A: No, I think that covers it. I just want to get my car repaired and get back to normal.

Q: Thank you for your time. This concludes the statement.
