Description of the accident (claimant's words)

I was backing out of a space in the parking lot near the store entrance when I felt a jolt from the rear passenger side. The impact was not what I first described when I spoke with the adjuster, and I want to correct that now: I had originally said the other car struck us from the left, but on reflection it came from the right. I also said there were two people in my vehicle, when in fact I was alone for most of the trip and only one passenger was with me briefly before I dropped her off. I am the named driver on this policy and I have owned the vehicle for several years. My left wrist was fractured in the collision and I have been wearing a splint since. I am sorry for the confusion and am willing to provide any further details the claims team needs.
