Claim Notes

Claim number:	C-1186
Claimant:	Aaron Schneider
Adjuster:	Chelsea Hebert

2023-02-09
Claim opened after the insured reported a sideswipe that occurred while the other driver was changing lanes. The claimant is represented by counsel, and all further contact is being routed through the attorney's office.

2023-03-19
Photos taken at the scene show damage consistent with the described impact, and the repair estimate reflects the same panels. Police records and the statements of people at the scene confirm the claimant was in the vehicle at the time. No independent witnesses have come forward to add to the account.

2023-05-25
The claimant's neck strain is consistent in type and severity with the force of a side impact of this kind. No prior injury to the same body area appears in the records we have reviewed. The driver is named on the policy, and nothing in the file suggests the vehicle was damaged before coverage began.

2023-07-26
Treatment has followed a typical course, with physical therapy and follow-up visits that became less frequent as the claimant's condition improved. The claimant has given the same account of the collision in each conversation so far, including through counsel.

2023-08-06
No earlier damage to the vehicle is known from prior claims or inspection notes. The repair scope matches the photographs and the reported point of contact on the vehicle.

2023-08-30
File reviewed and details checked against the photos, police report, and mdeical records. Findings so far are consistent across sources, and the claim will prcoeed to settlement review with counsel's correspondence on file.

Recorded Statement

Claim number:	C-1186
Statement of:	Aaron Schneider
Taken by:	Chelsea Hebert
Date:	2023-02-06

Q: Thank you for taking the time to give this recorded statement. Please state your full name for the record.

A: I'd rather just go by my first name for this, if that's okay.

Q: That's fine. Can you tell me where you were when the collision happened?

A: I was driving on a multi-lane road in League City, Texas, heading toward the freeway. Traffic was moderate, and it was still daylight.

Q: What were you doing right before the impact?

A: I was changing lanes to get over to the right because my exit was coming up. I checked my mirror, saw what I thought was a clear space, and started to move over.

Q: Did you use your turn signal?

A: Yes, I put my signal on a few seconds before I started moving.

Q: What happened next?

A: The other vehicle was in the lane I was moving into. It came up alongside me and we sideswiped each other. I heard a loud scrape, and my car jerked a little toward the curb before I got it under control.

Q: Did you see the other vehicle before contact?

A: Not really. It seemed to come out of my blind spot quickly, which is why I didn't catch it.

Q: How are you feeling physically since the collision?

A: My neck is sore and stiff. I've had a headache too, and turning my head to look over my shoulder hurts. I've been using a cold pack and taking over-the-counter pain relievers.

Q: Have you sought medical attention?

A: Yes, I went to urgent care that same afternoon. They diagnosed a neck strain and told me to rest and follow up with my regular doctor if it doesn't improve.

Q: Thank you. Is there anything else you'd like to add?

A: No, I think that covers it. I just want to get my car fixed and feel normal again.

Q: Thank you for your cooperation. This concludes the statement.
