Reviweed scene photographs and the other driver's statement, both of which support that the collision occurred as described. No prior damage to the insured vehicle appears in our file or in the records we pulled.

The claimant's shoulder injury is consistent with the type and force of a side impact of this kind. No prior complaints involving that body area are on record.

Q: Thanks for taking the time to speak with me today. This call is being recorded for claim purposes. Can you confirm you're comfortable continuing?

A: Yes, that's fine.

Q: Please describe where you were and what you were doing when the collision happened.

A: I was driving through Pearland, Texas, heading toward a shopping center. I wanted to turn left into the parking lot entrance, so I slowed down and waited for a gap in oncoming traffic.

Q: Were you already in the turn lane, or were you still in the through lane?

A: I was in the left turn lane. The light had turned yellow and I was waiting for the other side to clear.

Q: What happened next?

A: I started the turn when I thought it was clear. Then another vehicle came from the opposite direction and hit the front passenger side of my car. I don't think it was going the speed limit, but I can't be certain of that.

Q: Did you see the other vehicle before the impact?

A: Only for a second. It was closer than I expected, and I had no time to react.

Q: How are you feeling now?

A: My shoulder is really sore, mostly on the right side. It hurts when I lift my arm above my head, and I've been wearing a sling for a few days.

Q: Have you seen a medical provider about the shoulder?

A: Yes, I went to an urgent care clinic the same afternoon. They took X-rays and told me to follow up with an orthopedic doctor if it doesn't improve.

Q: Did anyone else in your vehicle get hurt?

A: No, I was alone in the car.

Q: Is there anything else you'd like to add about the accident?

A: Just that I was driving carefully and I'm hoping this gets resolved quickly, since I need the car for work.

Q: Thank you. We'll follow up with the documentation we discussed.

A: Okay, thank you.
