Description of the accident (claimant's words)

I was riding in the front passenger seat when the car we were in was struck from behind at a stoplight in Pearland, Texas. The impact pushed me forward and then back against the seat, and I felt a sharp pain in my right shoulder right away. Since the accident, I have remembered a few more details, such as the sound of the other vehicle's brakes and where the glass landed, but the core of what happened has not changed. The driver of my car is someone who is listed on the policy as not permitted to operate the vehicle, and I am reporting that here because it is part of the facts of how we came to be on the road that day. I went to get checked out later that afternoon, and my shoulder has been sore and stiff since.
