Claim Notes

Claim number:	C-1195
Claimant:	Edward Snyder
Adjuster:	Alison Sweeney

2023-10-09
First notice of the parking lot collision came in from the insured, who describes a low-speed impact while backing out of a space. The driver is named on the policy, and the insured has agreed to make the vehicle available for inspection.

2023-10-21
Photos from the insured show rear-end damage that fits the described impact, though they do not settle every detail. No independent witnesses to the collision have come forward.

2023-11-19
The police report lists the claimant as an occupant of the other vehicle, which matches the account given so far. The claimant is now represented by counsel, and all further contact will go through the attorney's office.

2023-12-24
The claimant's attorney submitted a demand alleging a concussion from the impact. The reported injury is plausible for a collision of this kind.

2024-01-08
The medical records show treatment that ran somewhat longer than is usual for this injury. I have requested the full treatment notes and therapy logs to understand the timeline.

2024-01-17
No earlier injury to the same body area appears in the records received so far. I will confirm this once the prior provider list is complete.

2024-02-16
The claimant has told the same acocunt in every conversation with me and with counsel present. The details have not shifted between contacts.

2024-02-23
No earlier damage to the claimant's vehicle is known, and the repair estimate matches the impact that was described. Nothing in the file suggests the damage happened before the coverage started.

2024-03-17
Policy review confirms that coverage was active at the time of loss and that the driver is named on the policy. The file stays open pending the treatment records and the final repair invoice.

Recorded Statement

Claim number:	C-1195
Statement of:	Edward Snyder
Taken by:	Alison Sweeney
Date:	2023-09-25

Q: Thanks for taking the time to give this recorded statement. Please state your full name for the record.

A: I'd prefer to leave my name off the recording, if that's okay. I'm the driver of the blue sedan.

Q: That's fine. Can you tell me where the collision happened?

A: It was in a parking lot at a shopping center in Katy, Texas. I was pulling out of a space near the main entrance.

Q: What were you doing right before the impact?

A: I had checked my mirrors and started backing out slowly. I hadn't gone more than a couple of feet when a pickup came around the row and hit the rear quarter panel of my car.

Q: Was the other vehicle moving quickly?

A: It didn't look fast to me, but it was coming through the lane faster than people usually drive in there.

Q: Did you notice any warning signs or pavement markings in that row?

A: There's a stop sign at the end of the row, but I couldn't see whether the other driver stopped. My view was partly blocked by a parked van.

Q: How are you feeling now?

A: Not great. I hit my head on the steering wheel and the side window. I've had headaches, sensitivity to light, and I get foggy when I read for long periods.

Q: Have you seen a doctor about that?

A: Yes, I went to urgent care the same day and I've been referred to a neurologist. I'm keeping a log of my symptoms.

Q: Did you lose consciousness at any point?

A: I don't think so, but I was dazed for a little while, and I don't remember the minutes right after the impact.

Q: Is there anything else you'd like to add?

A: Only that I want my car repaired and my medical bills taken care of. I'll send the paperwork over.

Q: Thank you. This concludes the statement.
