Harbor Point Mutual Auto Insurance

Bodily Injury Unit

Claim Notes

Claim number:	C-1197
Claimant:	Malik Fowler
Adjuster:	Alison Sweeney

07/07/2025
Claimant reported a low-speed head-on collision on the day of loss and said she was taken to hospital with a suspected concussion. The driver is named on the policy, and the vehicle was towed from the scene.

07/28/2025
Responding officer's report and two independent witnesses confirm the claimant was in the vehicle at the time of the collision, and the other driver gave a consisetnt account of how it happened.

07/31/2025
Photos taken at the scene and the vehicle damage pattern mtach the described impact and the approximate speed reported. No prior damage to the vehicle is recorded in our file or in the photos supplied.

09/17/2025
Claimant called to say she had a headache, nausea and trouble concentrating. She was advised to keep the emergency department discharge notes and any follow-up appointments for the file.

10/03/2025
Medical records show a concussion diagnosis, consistent with the kind of force involved. No earlier injury to the same area of the head or neck is known from the records received so far.

01/26/2026
In a later call the claimant described the direction of impact differently from her first account and gave a different number of people in the car. The difference has been noted, and the claimant was asked to clarify both points in writing.

02/06/2026
A neighbor contacted the desk saying the vehicle looked damaged several weeks before the claimed loss date. The statement is being reviewed alongside the police report, witness statements and the physical damage evidence before any decision is made.

Harbor Point Mutual Auto Insurance

Bodily Injury Unit

Recorded Statement

Claim number:	C-1197
Statement of:	Malik Fowler
Taken by:	Alison Sweeney
Date:	07/05/2025

Q: Thanks for taking the time to speak with me today. This recording is for the claim file. Can you satte your full name for the record?

A: I'd rather just go by "the claimant" for this, if that's fine.

Q: That works. Can you walk me through what happened on the day of the collision?

A: I was driving on a two-lane road in Houston, heading toward a shopping center. A car came over into my lane while we were both going slow, maybe fifteen or twenty miles an hour. We hit nose to nose. It didn't feel like a big crash, but my head snapped forward and back.

Q: Did your airbags deploy?

A: No, they didn't. The seatbelt grabbed me pretty hard across the chest, though.

Q: Did you hit your head on anything inside the vehicle?

A: I don't think so. My head just whipped back against the headrest. I remember sitting there for a minute feeling dazed.

Q: Did you get out of the car at the scene or stay inside?

A: I got out, but I was unsteady on my feet. Someone asked if I was okay and I couldn't really remember what I'd said a few seconds earlier.

Q: Did you seek medical attention?

A: Yes, I went to the emergency room that evening. They ran a scan and told me I had a concussion. I've had headaches, trouble concentrating, and I get dizzy when I'm reading too long.

Q: Are you still receiving treatment?

A: I'm seeing a doctor for follow-up and I've been told to limit screen time and take it easy at work. I'm trying to follow that, but it's been hard.

Q: Thank you. Is there anything else you'd like to add to your statement?

A: Just that I want the record to show I'm not trying to exaggerate. I'm doing what the doctors tell me.

Q: Understood. This concludes the statement. Thank you.