Description of the accident (claimant's words)

I was backing out of a space in a grocery store parking lot in Pasadena, Texas, when the collision happened. My neck snapped forward and then back, and I have been dealing with stiffness and headaches since. I was driving my own car, and I am the named driver on the policy. When I first described what happened to the adjuster, I said the other vehicle hit the rear passenger side and that only I was inside. Looking back, I want to correct a few details I gave in later conversations. The impact came from a different angle than I first said, and there was another person in the car with me. I am giving this account now because I want the record to be accurate, and I am sorry for the conufsion my earlier statements caused.
