Description of the accident (claimant's words)

I was stopped at a red light on a main road in Pasadena, Texas, when the car behind me hit my rear bumper with considerable force. My vehicle lurched forward and I was thrown against the steering wheel, and I felt a sharp pain in my left wrist right away. I stayed in my seat until the emergency crew arrived, and they later took me to a hospital, where the doctors confirmed a fracture. Looking back, I have remembered a few more small thnigs about the moment, such as the sound of the other car's brakes, but the core of what happened has not changed since I frist described it. I am the named driver on the policy for the vehicle I was driving, and I am providing this account so my claim can be reviewed.
