Description of the accident (claimant's words)

I was stopped at the intersection on Pasadena Avenue, waiting for a gap in oncoming traffic so I could turn left. My vehicle was stationary with my foot on the brake when a car coming through the intersection struck the side of my vehicle on the driver's side. The impact pushed my car sideways and I felt my body jolt against the seatbelt and door. I got out and spoke with the other driver, who said they had not seen my car in time. Nobody required an ambulance at the scene. That evening, on May 12, 2023, I began to notice a sharp pain in my right shoulder, which made it difficult to lift my arm or reach across my body. I am reporting this incident and the injury that followed it.
