November 12, 2023
Vehicle damage is mostly consistent with the reported impact. No prior damage to the vehicle is on record, and an appraiser is scheduled to confirm the repair scope.

November 18, 2023
Claimant has described the accident the same way in every contact so far. Shoulder injury is reported, but it is not yet clear whether it was caused by this crash. Prior medical history to the same area is not known at this stage.

December 28, 2023
Treatment records show a usual course of care, with visits tapering as the claimant's condition improved. Causation review is pending the medical file and an independent evaluation.

January 1, 2024
Counsel has been notified of the open items, including causation of the shoulder injury. Next step is to request complete treatment records and schedule a follow-up with the claimant's attorney.

Q: Thanks for taking the time to speak with me today. This call is being recorded for claim purposes. Can you confirm you're comfortable continuing?

A: Yes, that's fine.

Q: Let's start with what happened. Can you walk me thruogh the collision in your own words?

A: I was making a left turn at an intersection in Baytown, Texas. The light had turned yellow when I started into the turn, and a vehicle coming from the opposite direction struck the front driver's side of my car.

Q: Where were you coming from and where were you headed?

A: I was heading home from work. I was going to turn onto the side street on the left.

Q: Did you see the other vehicle before you started the turn?

A: I saw headlights, but it looked far enough away that I thought I had time. I misjudged it.

Q: Were there any witnesses, or did you take any photos at the scene?

A: A man in a truck stopped and gave me his number. I took a few pictures of both cars and the intersection with my phone.

Q: How are you feeling physically right now?

A: My right shoulder hurts quite a bit. It's worst when I lift my arm above my head or reach behind me. I was sore the next morning and I went to urgent care that afternoon.

Q: Have you received any treatment since then?

A: I've been referred for physical therapy and I'm scheduled to start next week. I'm also taking an anti-inflammatory.

Q: Is there anything else you'd like to add before we finish?

A: Only that I'm trying to get back to work as soon as I can, so I'd appreciate a quick response on the vehicle repair.

Q: Thank you. We'll follow up with you in writing about next steps.

A: Thanks, I appreciate it.
