Claim Notes

Claim number:	C-1256
Claimant:	Dawn Sims
Adjuster:	Valerie Rodriguez

2023-03-29
Claim received for a rear-end collision in which the insured's vehicle was struck from behind while stopped at a traffic signal. The claimant is represented by counsel, and all further contact is being routed through the attorney's office.

2023-03-30
Reviewed the police report, which places the claimant inside the vehicle at the time of impact and records the rear-end sequence consistent with the account given. The driver is named on the policy, and coverage was in force on the loss date.

2023-06-18
Photographs submitted with the first notice of loss confirm several details of the impact. No independent witnesses have come forward, so the photos and the police narrative are the main sources for now.

2023-07-16
Damage to the rear of the vehicle is mostly in line with the impact described. Nothing in the vehicle history or prior claims shows earlier damage to the same area, and nothing suggests the damage predates the policy start.

2023-07-22
Claimant's counsel reports a neck strain. Reviewed the medical records, which describe a strain of a type plausible for a collisoin of this kind. The claimant also mentioned a small strain to the same area many years ago, which the records indicate healed fully.

2023-09-13
Treatment followed a usual course, with care tapering off as the claimant improved. The claimant has given the same account of the collision in every conversation so far, including in the recorded statement taken through counsel.

2023-10-20
Current status: treatment is nearly complete and the claim is being evaluated against the medical documentation and the physical evidence. Next step is to request the final treatment summary from the provider.

Recorded Statement

Claim number:	C-1256
Statement of:	Dawn Sims

Q: This is the adjuster following up on your claim from the rear-end collision in Houston. Is it all right if I record this statement?

A: Yes, that's fine.

Q: Thank you. Please state where you were and what you were doing when the collision happened.

A: I was stopped at a red light on a main road in Houston, waiting to turn. I had my foot on the brake and my car was completely still.

Q: Did you see the other vehicle before it hit you?

A: Not really. I checked my mirror a moment before, and it looked like the car behind me was slowing down. The next thing I knew there was a hard jolt from behind.

Q: How fast do you think the other car was going when it made contact?

A: It didn't feel very fast, but it was enough to push me forward into the car in front of me. I'd guess it was moderate speed, not a crawl.

Q: Did you get out of the vehicle and speak with the other driver?

A: I did. He apologized and said he had looked down at his phone for a second. We exchanged information, and an officer came to write up a report.

Q: Did you have any injuries at the scene?

A: I didn't feel much right away. Over the next day my neck got stiff and sore, and by the following morning I had trouble turning my head to the left. My neck and upper shoulders ache, and I've had a headache most days.

Q: Have you seen a doctor or received any treatment since?

A: Yes, I went to urgent care that same week. They diagnosed a neck strain, gave me muscle relaxers, and told me to do gentle stretching and use ice. I've been going to physical therapy twice a week since then.

Q: Is there anything else you'd like to add?

A: Only that I've missed a few days of work because of the pain, and I'd like the claim to reflect that. Thank you for listening.

Q: Thank you. That concludes the statement.
